Note: Cultural Caravan Productions cordially invites you to attend our Pre-Kwanzaa Community Empowerment Event on Sunday, December 7 from 2pm to 6pm with Dr. Umar Johnson and Anthony Browder at MIST Harlem, 46 W.116 St., between Malcolm X Blvd and 5th Avenue. Tickets are still available, but moving fast.

However, those who will not be able to attend, are encouraged to watch our TV show, Cultural Caravan TV as follows:

Cultural Caravan TV presents a tribute to legendary jazz pianist, composer, and music historian, Randy Weston. Randy's career spans six decades and over five continents. He has a lifelong career of collaborating with great artists such as Duke Ellington, Dizzy Gillespie, Thelonious Monk, Max Roach, Charlie Parker, Miles Davis, and Langston Hughes, to name a few. The tribute will include a discussion about his book, The Autobiography of Randy Weston- African Rhythms. Please join us for a fascinating conversation with this amazing artist and educator.

This episode can be seen on Sunday, December 7 from 5:30pm to 6pm on NYC-Life Channel 25 or Channel 22 for Cablevision subscribers. On NYC Life, Cultural Caravan TV can be seen throughout the five boroughs of New York, Long Island, and Westchester County as well as in parts of New Jersey and Connecticut via on-air broadcasts, cable, and satellite stations. We encourage you to tune in and tell a friend. You can also acquire copies of prior episodes of Cultural Caravan TV by visiting the online boutique at www.ccptv.org.

Cultural Caravan TV is committed to celebrating the African American experience year-round. Please check out our website for a listing of local public access television stations that also carry the show and stream online.
