Where: Channel 25 & 22 (NYC Media) - Visit www.CCPTV.org for more show times

Time: 5:30pm – 6:00pm

Cultural Caravan TV proudly presents a new episode featuring an interview with the award winning writer, Dr. Bessie Blake, and her husband, Professor James Blake. Dr. Blake's new book, entitled God's Bad Boy: James Blake and the System, is a biography that chronicles her husband's turbulent childhood and the challenges that ultimately encouraged him to dedicate his life to community service. This program will be featured in two episodes.

Part I will focus on his early years as a child who had to endure years in the child welfare system with his siblings. He later discusses how mentoring and the knowledge of African history and culture aided in his personal development. In part 2, he will discuss his meeting with the great El Hajj Malik Shabazz, aka Malcolm X, and strategies that have sustained his 50+ year marriage. Prof. Blake's phenomenal story of strength and personal triumph over adversity was first told on Gil Noble's "Like It Is" program several years ago. We are honored to share this important episode with you on Sunday, January 25, from 5:30pm to 6pm on NYC-Life Channel 25 and Channel 22.

On NYC Life, Cultural Caravan TV can be seen throughout the five boroughs of New York, Long Island, Westchester County as well as in parts of New Jersey and Connecticut via on-air broadcasts, cable, and satellite stations. We encourage you to tune in and tell a friend. Cultural Caravan TV is committed to celebrating the African American experience year-round. Please check out our website at www.ccptv.org for a listing of local public access television stations that also carry the show and stream online.
