Cultural Caravan TV proudly presents Part 2 of a new episode featuring an interview with the award winning writer, Dr. Bessie Blake, and her husband, Professor James Blake. Dr. Blake's new book, entitled God's Bad Boy: James Blake and the System, is a biography that chronicles her husband's turbulent childhood and the challenges that ultimately encouraged him to dedicate his life to community service. In part 2, Prof. James Blake will discuss his memorable meetings with the great El Hajj Malik Shabazz, aka Malcolm X, as well as strategies that have sustained his 50+ year marriage. Prof. Blake's phenomenal story of strength and personal triumph over adversity was first told on Gil Noble's "Like It Is" program several years ago. We are honored to share this important episode with you on Sunday, February 1, from 5:30pm to 6pm on NYC-Life Channel 25 and Channel 22. In celebration of African American History Month, please tune in and tell a friend.

On NYC Life, Cultural Caravan TV can be seen throughout the five boroughs of New York, Long Island, Westchester County as well as in parts of New Jersey and Connecticut via on-air broadcasts, cable, and satellite stations. We encourage you to tune in and tell a friend. Cultural Caravan TV is committed to celebrating the African American experience year-round. Please check out our website at www.ccptv.org for a listing of local public access television stations that also carry the show and stream online.
