Cultural Caravan TV (CCPTV) proudly presents a new two-part special with guest, Dr. Eric Foner, DeWitt Clinton Professor of History at Columbia University. He is considered one of this country's most prominent historians. He also has the distinction of being one of a handful of scholars who've won the Bancroft and Pulitzer Prizes in the same year for his work. In Part 1, he will discuss his new work entitled, Gateway to Freedom: The Hidden History of the Underground Railroad. This work uncovers the facts and dispels the myths pertaining to the Underground railroad and the role that free Blacks in New York played, in conjunction with White abolitionist, in support of runaway slaves who ventured North in their quest for freedom. This episode will be hosted by Dr. William Seraile, Professor Emeritus of African and African American Studies at Lehman College. We encourage you to tune in on Sunday, March 1, from 5:30pm to 6pm on Channel 25 and Channel 22 and tell a friend.

On NYC Life, Cultural Caravan TV can be seen throughout the five boroughs of New York, Long Island, Westchester County as well as in parts of New Jersey and Connecticut via on-air broadcasts, cable, and satellite stations. We encourage you to tune in and tell a friend. Cultural Caravan TV is committed to celebrating the African American experience year-round. Please check out our website at www.ccptv.org for a listing of local public access television stations that also carry the show and stream online.
