Cultural Caravan Productions, Inc. Salutes the Life and Legacy of Dr. Yosef Ben Jochanan (Sunrise:1918- Sunset:2015) Yesterday, we learned of the passing of the great historian, Dr. Yosef Ben Jochanan at the age of 97. Our thoughts and prayers go out to his family and the community to which he had served for many years. We will share details about his services as information becomes available.

In celebration of Black Theatre, Cultural Caravan TV presents a spotlight on the Coalition of Theatres of Color. This organization was founded by the late great Ossie Davis and Ruby Dee Davis as a vehicle to advocate for parity in funding and resources for multi-cultural arts institutions across the City. This program will feature an interview with Carl Clay and Woodie King, Jr. Carl Clay is the founder and CEO of the Black Spectrum Theatre Company in Queens NY, which celebrates its 45th anniversary this year. Woodie King, Jr., is the founder and CEO of the New Federal Theatre(NFT), in NYC. This year marks the 46th anniversary of NFT. They will share strategies for the preservation of arts and cultural institutions in our community. We invite you to tune in on Sunday, March 22 at 5:30pm on NYC-Life Channel 25 and Channel 22.

in NYC Life, Cultural Caravan TV can be seen throughout the five boroughs of New York, Long Island, Westchester County as well as in parts of New Jersey and Connecticut via on-air broadcasts, cable, and satellite stations. We encourage you to tune in and tell a friend. Cultural Caravan TV is committed to celebrating the African American experience year-round. Please check out our website at www.ccptv.org for a listing of local public access television stations that also carry the show and stream online.
