Cultural Caravan TV proudly presents a special tribute to the legendary poet, playwright, and activist, Amiri Baraka (1934-2014). He is considered one of the most influential African American writers of his time, as well as the architect of the Black Arts Movement of the 1960's. On this episode, Amiri discusses his life and reflections on life and politics. This episode was taped in 2013 at the historic, Afrikan Poetry Theatre, in Jamaica Queens. The program will also feature the late co-founder and executive director of APT, John Watusi Branch (1943-2013) who presents a poetic tribute to Amiri Baraka on the program. Tune in on Sunday, April 26 at 5:30pm on NYC-Life, Channel 25 and Channel 22 as we celebrate and commemorate the life and legacy of distinguished icons in African American arts and culture. Don't Miss it!!!

On NYC Life, Cultural Caravan TV can be seen throughout the five boroughs of New York, Long Island, and Westchester County as well as in parts of New Jersey and Connecticut via on-air broadcasts, cable, and satellite stations. We encourage you to tune in and tell a friend. Cultural Caravan TV is committed to celebrating the African American experience year-round. Please check out our website at www.ccptv.org for a listing of local public access television stations that also carry the show and stream online.
