Monday, August 17, will mark the 128th birthday of the Honorable Marcus Mosiah Garvey. The Hon. Marcus Mosiah Garvey, Jr. was a publisher, journalist, and orator who was a staunch proponent of the Black nationalism and Pan-Africanism movements, to which end he founded the Universal Negro Improvement Association and African Communities League (UNIA-ACL). He founded the Black Star Line, which promoted the return of the African diaspora to the ancestral lands. Garveyism intended persons of African ancestry in the diaspora to "redeem" the nations of Africa and for the European colonial powers to leave the continent. On Sunday, August 16, from 5:30pm to 6pm, we will feature an encore interview with one of the sons of the Hon. Marcus Garvey and Amy Jacques Garvey, Dr. Julius Garvey. In this episode, hosted by Dr. William Seraile, Dr. Garvey will share little known insight about the life, times, perceptions, and achievements of his father. In addition, he will discuss how life was "growing up Garvey". Join us for another "must see" episode of Cultural Caravan TV.
