The 2015 Community Empowerment Series

The 2015 Community Empowerment Series this past Sunday, October 4 @ MIST Harlem was a huge success. Over 300 people packed the house to hear enlightening presentations by Dr. Patricia Newton and Dr. Umar Johnson. In addition, participants were delighted by the soulful sounds of Atiba Wilson and the BEFO'QUOTET. Special thanks to MIST Harlem co-owner, Walter Edwards, and staff for hosting this important event. For information about copies of the tape of this program, contact us. Special thanks to all of those who were able to attend. We look forward to your continued support of our programs. Special thanks to the presenters, volunteers, vendors, and support staff who all contributed to the success of this program. We would also like to thank Basir Mchawi (WBAI Radio) and Bernice Greene of Our Time Press for their assistance with publicizing this event.

Ancient African History with Dr. Kaba Kamene, Part 2

Cultural Caravan TV presents Part 2 of an encore three part presentation on ancient African history with historian, Dr. Kaba Kamene, Professor of Black Studies at SUNY New Paltz on Sunday, October 11 from 5:30pm to 6pm. The program will provide an analysis of the critically acclaimed movie, "Hidden Colors". Part 2 will explore ancient Egyptian/Kemet symbolism, as well as the African presence in early Asia, Europe, and the South Pacific Islands. This promises to be another enlightening episode with Dr. Kamene (aka Booker T. Coleman, Jr.). Dr. Kamene has taught in the New York City Public school system for over 31 years. He is also a curriculum writer and a consultant for boards of education both nationally as well as internationally. Please be sure to tune in and tell a family member, friend or neighbor about this informative series.

Cultural Caravan TV can be seen on NYC-Life station via on-air broadcasts, cable, and satellite dish stations, throughout the five boroughs of New York, Long Island, Westchester County, as well as in parts of New Jersey and Connecticut. If you're not home, simply DVR or record the episode for future viewing. Cultural Caravan TV celebrates the African American experience. We invite you to check out the show weekdays. Cultural Caravan TV can also be seen on the following local public access stations New York on weeknights: Queens

Public Access (QPTV), Brooklyn Community Access TV (BCAT), Manhattan Neighborhood Network (MNN) and Cablevision in Northern Westchester. Please check out our website for dates and times in your area.
