Time: 5:30pm – 6:00pm

Cultural Caravan TV's brand new episode of the award winning "Celebration of Children and Families Show - Part 2" features a great line up of educational and entertaining segments which include travel, health, culture, the arts and more. We believe that our children learn best by doing. The focus of this program will be on the role that adults play in passing down traditions and culture to children. This episode is hosted by 12 year old, Olabisi Adams. Also featured are Tracy Pierre and daughter, Harmony, who discuss their exciting cultural exchange tour of China, which include a new dance presentation inspired by their experiences. Nine year old twins, Allahna and Anjali Johnson, make their debut on the show with a dynamic combo of dance and vocal presentation. Dr. William Seraile introduces his granddaughters to creative storytelling techniques. Louise Dente shares folktales and introduces the Kiswahili Number song, in honor of the late Yusuf Waliyaya. Dja Dja Meday shares fitness tips with Kweli Dente (12 years old). It's an exciting show and we encourage you to tune in and tell a friend. The program will air on Sunday, December 20 at 5:30pm on Channel 25 and Channel 22 on NYC-Life.

On NYC Life, Cultural Caravan TV can be seen throughout the five boroughs of New York, Long Island, Westchester County as well as in parts of New Jersey and Connecticut via on-air broadcasts, cable, and satellite stations. We encourage you to tune in and tell a friend. Cultural Caravan TV is committed to celebrating the African American experience year-round. Please check out our website at www.ccptv.org for a listing of local public access television stations that also carry the show and stream online.
