This week, Our Time Press, published a wonderful article which recognized last week's Cultural Caravan TV episode in "Celebration of Children and Families". Attached, please find an electronic copy of the newspaper. The article, which includes a wonderful array of pictures, can be seen on page 5 of the attachment. Kudos to Bernice Green and David Greaves, publishers of this outstanding community newspaper, which proudly celebrates its 20th anniversary next year.

This year, marks the 49th anniversary of the Kwanzaa holiday. In celebration of this important, non-denominational holiday, Cultural Caravan TV proudly presents highlights from Dr. Karenga's annual Kwanzaa address, which was made during the 48th anniversary program last December. Dr. Karenga is professor and chair of Africana Studies at California State University, Long Beach. An activist-scholar of national and international recognition, Dr. Karenga has had a far-reaching effect on Black intellectual and political culture since the 1960s. His stirring message is as timely now as it was then. We invite you to join us, especially if you're unable to make it to any of the Kwanzaa activities that will occurred throughout the city this weekend. This episode will air on Sunday, December 27, from 5:30pm to 6pm on NYC-Life Channel 25 and Channel 22. Join us!!!

On NYC Life, Cultural Caravan TV can be seen throughout the five boroughs of New York, Long Island, Westchester County as well as in parts of New Jersey and Connecticut via on-air broadcasts, cable, and satellite stations. We encourage you to tune in and tell a friend. Cultural Caravan TV is committed to celebrating the African American experience year-round. Please check out our website at www.ccptv.org for a listing of local public access television stations that also carry the show and stream online.
