BET Centric- Premieres "Life's Essentials with Ruby Dee at 3pm

In 2012, Muta'ali Muhammad the grandson of the late actor and activist, Ruby Dee, had contacted me about a movie that he was making in celebration of the life and legacy on his grand-parents. I was elated to have an opportunity to invite Muta'ali and Jevon Frank, the producer of "Life's Essentials with Ruby Dee" to discuss the project as well as appeal to the audience to support their Kickstarter campaign to raise the needed revenue to bring this important story about love, art, and activism to the screen. I had the opportunity to back the project financially as well. In 2013, Cultural Caravan TV given the honor of being one of the few television organizations to actually cover the star-studded 90th birthday celebration at the Schomburg Center for Ruby Dee. I am pleased to announce that this award winning film will premiere

on Sunday, January 17 at 3pm on BET Centric. I encourage you to tune in and tell a friend and family member to watch this wonderful film, which provides a rare glimpse into the life of the legendary, Ruby Dee and her husband, Ossie Davis. Best,
