When: Sunday, April 3rd, 2015

Where: Channel 25 & 22 (NYC Media) - Visit www.CCPTV.org for more show times

Time: 5:30pm – 6:00pm

Cultural Caravan TV (CCPTV) presents a follow up conversation with scholar, Dr. William Seraile and Prof. Peter Kwong on the ongoing struggle for Civil Rights for African American and Asian Americans. As you know, CCPTV began this ground-breaking discussion last fall. This analysis of this timely topic comes at a time when both groups have recently stood on opposite sides in regards to the conviction of an Chinese cop for the killing an unarmed man, Akai Gurley.

Prof. Peter Kwong, is a Distinguished Professor of Urban Affairs and Planning at Hunter College, as well as

Professor of Sociology at the Graduate Center of the City University of New York. He is a pioneer in Asian American studies, a leading scholar of immigration, and an award-winning journalist and filmmaker, widely recognized for his passionate commitment to human rights and social justice. Dr. William Seraile is Professor Emeritus of African and African American Studies at Lehman College. This episode will explore early Chinese history in the US, as well as expose the myths and stereotypes which have kept both groups apart historical in this country. This program was taped at the Douglaston/Littleneck Library in Queens New York as part of our community engagement project. Special thanks to Arline Abdalian and the library staff. Join us for another provocative and
