What: October 4 Community Empowerment Event

When: October 4th, 2015

Where: MIST (My Image Studio) Harlem

Time: 3:00pm – 7:00pm

Cultural Caravan TV presents Part Three of an insightful and power-packed interview with Dr. Umar Johnson on the topic of Educating African American Children for Future Success. Dr. Umar (as he's popularly known) is a Nationally Certified School Psychologist who practices privately throughout Pennsylvania and lectures throughout the USA as well as internationally. Dr. Umar is considered a national expert on learning disabilities and the effect on Black children, as well as an expert on helping schools and parents modify challenging behaviors that can ultimately lead to disruptive behavior disorder diagnoses in Black boys. Dr. Umar is an author and is in the process of developing an independent school for African American children. In this episode, Dr. Umar will discuss his goals for developing an alternative school, as well as shares strategies for parents towards raising African American children. Tune in on Sunday, September 13 from 5:30pm to 6pm on NYC-Life Channel 25/22.
